OBITUARY

COM. RAJANI KANT PASSES AWAY

With profound grief, we convey to all concerned associated with trade union movement in UCO Bank in general and our members in particular, the news of sad demise of our beloved leader, Comrade Rajani Kant, on 15th September 2026 due to sudden massive cardiac arrest. He was the Central Executive Committee member of our Association. He was also Vice President of UCBEA, Bihar State Committee and Executive Committee Member of Bank Employees Federation–Bihar.

Born in 1973 in Patna, Bihar. He completed his schooling from Patna School and graduated from Patna College. He served the nation as a Navy Warrior.

He joined our Bank on 21.10.2008. He was an ex-serviceman. He became a trade union activist and shortly acquired huge popularity for rare human qualities in him. He has considerable knowledge in computer, social media and contributed our organization on the subject. He became a prominent leader of UCBEA, BIHAR and contributed largely for growth and development of UCBEA. His tenacity to resolve issues of employees were exemplary.

He was attached with our Rajabazar Branch, Patna as Senior Customer Service Associate.

Trade union movement in UCO Bank was largely benefited from his devotion in trade union activities. He was also involved with the left and democratic movements in the state of Bihar.

He left behind his wife, an unmarried daughter and a son (student).

We all recall the best and unforgettable memories of Comrade 'Rajani Kant'.

UCBEA dips its banner and extend heartfelt condolence to the bereaved family members.

RED SALUTE TO COMRADE RAJANI KANT.

COM. RAJANI KANT AMAR RAHE.
