The nationwide General Strike slated on 9 July 2025 is only a week away. The working class of the country is preparing in full swing throughout the country for making the Strike a resounding success as per decision of the National Convention of Workers held on 18 March 2025. The Strike is supported by the peasantry, youth, students, women, middle class employees and all sections of people. The five left parties of our country have extended their support to the issues and causes of the Strike call.

With an unprecedented united approach, the national Federations of bank and insurance sector are in an all out preparation for successful observance of the Strike on 9 July 2025. Apart from issuing joint appeals and circulars to the employees of the sector and common people, joint hall meetings, gate meetings, rallies are taking place in different states with great enthusiasm. The momentum is bound to increase in the remaining days with several programme to take place as per state and national level decisions. We are happy that many constituents of UFBU extended their support.

We are coming across with information of a good number of meetings organized by different state Federations and bank level Federations/Unions affiliated to BEFI involving large section of members. There will be many more meetings across the country during the remaining period. In different state, the bank level Unions visited hundreds of branches campaigning the issues of the Strike. This initiative must be continued till the day of the Strike. On the Strike date there will be centralised programme in all the states, our members should respond appropriately.

The employees and officers of the RRBs will be observing Strike at the call of All India Regional Rural Bank Employees' Association (AIRRBEA) on 9 July 2025 rescheduling from 20 May 2025 as per decision of CTUs on 17-point demands. BEFI extends full support to the strike call of AIRRBEA. We call upon our Units and Affiliates to take necessary initiatives for successful Strike in all the 28 RRBs as well.
